

A COUNTRY JOURNEY GUIDE

OMAN / HAJAR MOUNTAINS

Roots & Souqs

A journey through the spine of Oman.

roots & / souqs

This is a journey through the spine of Oman - deep into the Hajar Mountains, where cliffs rise like walls, villages hang off ledges, and the sounds of the mountain hit different. It's five days of off-road climbs, cold canyon swims, old souqs, and mountain sunsets that keep you on your toes.

We camp where the stars light the sky, walk through centuries-old mud towns, and move as a crew through wild landscapes and real moments.

If you're looking for something polished and predictable, this isn't it. This is Janoob, it's built for people who prefer the journey and not just the destination.
