The Three Kings

A family desert experience — dunes, the White Desert and a visit after dark

A journey you can picture yourself inside

The shortest way into the Western Desert, built for families. Two nights under canvas, sandboarding on the Rajeh dunes, the chalk formations of the White Desert — and on the second night, guests who arrive at the fire bearing gifts for the young ones.

The first of nine Western Desert journeys, and the shortest. It covers the same opening ground as the four- and five-day tours; travellers who want the Djara Cave or the deep dunes should look further down the list.

HOW YOU TRAVEL

Vehicle · Camping. Cairo return · 3 days · 4 to 20 travellers. Each of the nine journeys is a separate booking with its own start and finish; none is a stage of another.

IMPORTANT

This is the intended route, not a fixed timetable.

It communicates the ground covered, the pace and the level of effort. Named properties, exact camp locations, departure times, prices and meal inclusions are confirmed at booking. Weather, park authorities, soft sand and vehicle recovery can change the order or content of a day; this guide names those dependencies wherever they affect your choice.

Every day carries the same four facts

ROUTE

Where the day starts, what it passes through and where it ends.

SLEEP

Tent or bed, and where. Camps are chosen on the day; the area is fixed, the exact spot is not.

DISTANCE

Kilometres where the source gives them, on foot for the walking tours, otherwise an estimate.

MEALS

What is included that day. Anything not listed is not included.

RHYTHM

A reading of how much the day asks of you, followed by the kind of ground it crosses.

Easy

Road transfer, an oasis day, or a short walk. Recoverable.

Steady

A full day of driving or walking, with stops. The normal shape.

Demanding

Long hours, soft sand, recovery work or a hard walk. Plan around it.

FREE TIME

Noted where a day holds unstructured hours. Desert days rarely do; the group moves together and the camp is made together.

Cairo — Baharia Oasis — Rajeh Dunes

ROUTE	SLEEP	DISTANCE	MEALS
Cairo → Baharia Oasis → Black Desert → Sheikh Abdullah Labyrinth → Rajeh Dunes	Camp · Rajeh Dunes	≈370 km road, short off-road	Lunch, dinner

EASY · ROAD AND DUNE

An early start leaves Cairo for Baharia, where lunch is taken on a local farm among the palms. The 4WDs then leave the oasis for the Black Desert, whose volcanic hills date to the Jurassic, and on through the Sheikh Abdullah Labyrinth to the Rajeh dunes for sandboarding and the first camp.

NOTE	Neolithic tools surface in the Sheikh Abdullah Labyrinth from time to time. Nothing is collected.

02

Rajeh Dunes — Agabat — Karaween — White Desert

ROUTE	SLEEP	DISTANCE	MEALS
Rajeh Dunes → English Track → Agabat → Ein El Serw → Wadi Al Kabir → White Desert	Camp · White Desert National Park	≈90 km off-road	Breakfast, lunch, dinner

STEADY · OFF-ROAD

A morning walk in the dunes, then the English Track the British laid between Baharia and Farafra a century ago. The day crosses a fossil bed of million-year-old sea shells, the chalk hills of Agabat and the Roman well at Ein El Serw, and takes lunch under an acacia in the Wadi Al Kabir before reaching the White Desert.

NOTE	The Three Kings arrive at the campfire after dinner with gifts for the children, and do not stay long.

03 White Desert — Crystal Mountain — Cairo

ROUTE	SLEEP	DISTANCE	MEALS
White Desert → El Santa → Ein Khadra → Crystal Mountain → El Heez → Baharia → Cairo	—	≈400 km	Breakfast, lunch

EASY · RETURN

A sunrise walk among the formations, then El Santa — a 2,000-year-old acacia — and the Roman well at Ein Khadra, which still gives cool water. A short cave scramble at Crystal Mountain and a swim at El Heez precede the last souvenir stop in Baharia.

NOTE	Estimated arrival in Cairo 6–7pm.

The Three Kings visit is arranged around the group's own date and is not a fixed calendar event.
