The White Desert Trek

Seven days on foot — the two valleys, the Roman wells and both White Deserts

A journey you can picture yourself inside

Seven days walking, fifteen to twenty kilometres a day, carrying only the day's water. Vehicles meet the group at the start and at the end and nowhere in between. The route crosses both valleys, washes at two Roman wells, and finishes among the formations of the New White Desert.

The fifth of nine and the first walking tour. Its twelve-day sibling covers the same ground and adds the Pac Man Hills, the Rajeh dunes and the El Matar labyrinth.

IMPORTANT

This is the intended route, not a fixed timetable.

It communicates the ground covered, the pace and the level of effort. Named properties, exact camp locations, departure times, prices and meal inclusions are confirmed at booking. Weather, park authorities, soft sand and vehicle recovery can change the order or content of a day; this guide names those dependencies wherever they affect your choice.

Every day carries the same four facts

ROUTE

Where the day starts, what it passes through and where it ends.

SLEEP

Tent or bed, and where. Camps are chosen on the day; the area is fixed, the exact spot is not.

DISTANCE

Kilometres where the source gives them, on foot for the walking tours, otherwise an estimate.

MEALS

What is included that day. Anything not listed is not included.

RHYTHM

A reading of how much the day asks of you, followed by the kind of ground it crosses.

■ Easy

Road transfer, an oasis day, or a short walk. Recoverable.

■ Steady

A full day of driving or walking, with stops. The normal shape.

■ Demanding

Long hours, soft sand, recovery work or a hard walk. Plan around it.

FREE TIME

Noted where a day holds unstructured hours. Desert days rarely do; the group moves together and the camp is made together.

01

Cairo — Baharia — Al Wadi Al Sagheer

ROUTE	SLEEP	DISTANCE	MEALS
Cairo → Baharia Oasis → Agabat Labyrinth → El Wadi	Camp · El Wadi	≈10 km on foot	Lunch, dinner

■ STEADY · TREK

A 0700 pickup and the drive to Baharia for lunch. A brief transfer leaves the oasis behind, and the first trek — about ten kilometres — carries the group through the Agabat labyrinth and down into the valley, where camp is set.

02

Al Wadi Al Sagheer — Ein El Serw

ROUTE	SLEEP	DISTANCE	MEALS
El Wadi Al Sagheer → Ein El Serw (Roman well)	Camp · near Ein El Serw	≈15 km on foot	Breakfast, lunch, dinner

■ STEADY · TREK

Walking the small valley, which two thousand years ago was lush enough to hold a Roman settlement. The few remaining date palms are the evidence. The well at Ein El Serw gives a refreshing stop and a small wash before camp on smooth sand nearby.

03 Ein El Serw — Al Wadi Al Kabeer

ROUTE	SLEEP	DISTANCE	MEALS
Ein El Serw → escarpment → Al Wadi Al Kabeer	Camp · Al Wadi Al Kabeer	15-20 km on foot	Breakfast, lunch, dinner

■ STEADY · TREK

Sunrise in the desert is not to be missed, and it is cold enough at that hour to want a jacket. The day crosses a small escarpment into the bigger valley and walks it all the way to camp.

04 Al Wadi Al Kabeer — Ein Khadra — Old White Desert

ROUTE	SLEEP	DISTANCE	MEALS
Al Wadi Al Kabeer → escarpment → Ein Khadra → El Santa → Old White Desert	Camp · Old White Desert	15-20 km on foot	Breakfast, lunch, dinner

■ DEMANDING · TREK

Up onto the escarpment to the second Roman well at Ein Khadra, then on to El Santa, the 2,000-year-old acacia, for lunch. The afternoon enters the Old White Desert, where the chalk has been carved by sand and wind for thousands of years.

05 Old White Desert — New White Desert

ROUTE	SLEEP	DISTANCE	MEALS
Old White Desert → New White Desert	Camp · New White Desert	≈12 km on foot	Breakfast, lunch, dinner

■ STEADY · TREK

A morning among the older formations, where the chalk holds the signs of an ecosystem that lived under the sea millions of years ago. A short trek after lunch reaches the New White Desert.

06 Within the New White Desert

ROUTE	SLEEP	DISTANCE	MEALS
New White Desert	Camp · New White Desert	12-15 km on foot	Breakfast, lunch, dinner

■ STEADY · TREK

A full day among the formations of the New White Desert — shapes that will give joy to the least imaginative of us. Lunch among them, and camp again at the end of the walk.

07

New White Desert — Baharia — Cairo

ROUTE	SLEEP	DISTANCE	MEALS
New White Desert → vehicle meeting point → hot well → Baharia Oasis → Cairo	—	Short hike, then ≈370 km road	Breakfast, lunch

EASY · RETURN

The last sunrise and a final morning walk, then a hike out to meet the vehicles. A dip at a hot well, lunch in Baharia, and the drive to Cairo.

NOTE	The hot well is the first proper wash of the week.
